DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's response and amendment filed June 29, 2004 has been fully considered.

Claims 2-4, 6-25 and 34-43 are now pending.

Examiner's Amendment

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to Applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with James E. Goepel (Reg. No. 50,851) on October 7, 2004.

3. The application has been amended to obviate potential 35 U.S.C. 112 second paragraph issues and places the remaining claims in condition for allowance. The application has been amended as presented below.

IN THE CLAIMS:

Please amend claim 35 as follows:

Claim 35 (currently amended), at line 1, after the word "claim," please delete the number "13" and replace with the number --34--.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 2-4, 6-25 and 34-43 are allowed.
5. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.

The prior art of record, including Zizzi and De Armas, suggests a method for associating the activity of an application with the graphical display of a file on the screen, comprising a message monitoring program that uses a hook to monitor messages and a surrogate window to replace the application's window function, and further comprising the steps of receiving event messages and acting upon files before they are closed. McDonnal discloses scorching a file by overwriting or wiping the corresponding disk storage area before deleting the file (see column 27, line 48 to column 28, line 5).

However, the prior art of record does not expressly teach or disclose, "deleting a temporary file from a mass storage device, wherein the deletion includes the steps of wiping the device sectors of the data contained therein and renaming the temporary file to a name consisting of one letter prior to deletion," in such a manner and combination as recited in each of independent claims 12 and 13.

Furthermore, the prior art made of record does not disclose renaming a temporary file to a name consisting of one letter prior to deletion. U.S. Pat. No. 5,991,778 to Starek et al. discloses overwriting the name of a file (see column 7, lines 5-64) for purposes of secure file deletion (see the abstract), but does not disclose renaming a temporary file to a name consisting of one letter prior to deletion. Likewise, U.S. Pat. No. 6,351,813 to Mooney et al. discloses a user-selectable processing option to rename an encrypted file to a number (see column 6, lines 6-23), but does not disclose renaming a temporary file to a name consisting of one letter prior to deletion.

Claims 2-4, 6-11, 14-25 and 34-43 are also allowed, as they are dependent upon either independent claim 12 or independent claim 13.

Any comments considered necessary by Applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to Applicant's disclosure.
